|                                  | David clarified for and that Western certifies for public K-12 teachers, but that this certification is not necessary to teach in private schools. They didn't realize that Western certifies just for public K-12; they want to be teaching in private school. David told that post-bac is available if he wants to pursue public certification, but letters of recommendation and experience in the classroom would be necessary.  |
|                                  | David asked to be in touch with him if wants to come back to Western to pursue his certification.  |
